To Whom it May Concern:

This letter is written in support of Attorney Todd Grant. I have known Todd for about three years, having professional dealings both on a professional committee and in private practice. In my dealings with Todd he has been sincere, conscientious and prepared.

For the Friend of the Court committee, Todd willingly undertook some work assignments on domestic matters. This included developing a useful form to comply with recent legislation pertaining to insurance reimbursement for minors. He was always timely, courteous and appropriate in committee work.

In private practice the matter in which we were involved was difficult and complicated. Again, Todd remained committed, professional, ethical and prepared.

It is a pleasure to prepare this letter on behalf of Todd.

Respectfully,

Judith W. Judge
